

The Greatest Love

The Greatest Love

Let me tell you about the Love
About the Greatest Love
About the Love that began before time began
About the Love, that never ends
Even after time has ended

Let me tell you about the Greatest Love
The Love, that was before the world began

Let me tell you about the Greatest Love
The love that will be even when the world has ended

Let me tell you about the Greatest Love
About the Love that has created me
About the Love that has created you
About the Love that created all and everything

Let me tell you about the Greatest Love
About the Love that let my heart glow
About a Love that is so all-powerful
About a Love that is so all-embracing
About a Love that created a universe

Let me tell you about the Greatest Love
About a Love that has filled my entire being
About a Love that is burning me
I burn but it is not enough

Oh Lord, my King
You who is my All-Beloved
Spark the fervor in my being, spark the fire
Let Your Love's firestorm burn everything in me
That is not you

Oh Lord, let me tell you about the Greatest Love
Let me burn in the fire of your love
It is what my heart desires
In me nothing shall remain but Your Love

My being screams because of pain
My heart is yearning for You

Oh, my Lord, My Beloved
You, you are the King of Kings
The All-Merciful, the All-Gracious
The All-Mighty and the All-deciding Power

Let me tell you about the Greatest Love
Your Love, Your all-embracing Love

You have given a spark of Your Love
To each and every being
So that it will ignite upon your order

Oh, my Lord, My Beloved
Ignite the spark in me, make me burn
Please answer my yearning and my longing for You
For Your Presence in me and your Love
The Greatest Love
The cause and the reason of all that exists
